Underpinning Revision

- Space – five hours over two weeks is better than five hours at once.
- Interleave – ABC, CAB; not AAA, or CCC.
- Retrieve – test your memory.
